Homily

Profession of Faith

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.

I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.

For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.

I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

St. Damien Trivia!

Congratulations to Kira Kelly for being the first to correctly answer the St. Damien Trivia challenge. The picture is from the statue of St. Frances Cabrini located in the nook in the left front of St. Frances Cabrini Church. The quote is Philippians 4:13, translated from the Latin, "I have strength for everything through him who empowers me." Saint Frances Xavier Cabrini is the foundress of the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart of Jesus. She founded 67 missionary institutions to serve the sick and poor. Armed with her motto from St. Paul's Letter to the Philippians, she began a work that was to sweep over the length and breadth of America, extending through South America and to Spain, France, and England.
