HOMILY

PROFESSION OF FAITH

I believe in one God, the Father almighty, maker of heaven and earth, of all things visible and invisible.
I believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the Only Begotten Son of God, born of the Father before all ages. God from God, Light from Light, true God from true God, begotten, not made, consubstantial with the Father; through him all things were made. For us men and for our salvation he came down from heaven, and by the Holy Spirit was incarnate of the Virgin Mary, and became man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate, he suffered death and was buried, and rose again on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of the Father. He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead and his kingdom will have no end.
I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is adored and glorified, who has spoken through the prophets.
I believe in one, holy, catholic and apostolic Church. I confess one Baptism for the forgiveness of sins and I look forward to the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

MANUP SOUTH JERSEY

A View from the Rectory Window

This weekend, we celebrate the Feasts of All Saints and All Souls. I invite you to embrace one of the beautiful spiritual works of mercy – to pray for the dead. I invite you and your family to the Mass on the Feast of All Souls at 6pm on Monday, November 2, at the Church of Saint Frances Cabrini.

In the book Saint John Vianney: The Village Priest Who Fought God's Battles, the story is told of the death of Father Balley, a very holy priest who mentored Saint John Vianney. When only the two priests were left in the room, "the dying man gave his 'dear son' his parting counsels, and asked for his prayers." Then Father Balley pulled out his instruments of penance—the discipline and hair shirt with which he had so often mortified his flesh—and gave them to Saint John Vianney with these words:

"Take these things, my poor child, and hide them. If these objects were found after my death, people would think I had sufficiently expiated my sins. And then they'd leave me in purgatory until the end of the world."

This priest, of whom Saint John Vianney said he had never encountered a more beautiful soul, did not want anyone thinking he was going straight to heaven. If they had thought so, it surely would have comforted them, but it would not have assisted him in getting there. What he desired was that those mourning his death would perform a work of mercy for him: He wanted them to pray for his soul.

The Catechism of the Catholic Church says that the Church, "from the very earliest days of the Christian religion, has honored with great respect the memory of the dead; and 'because it is a holy and a wholesome thought to pray for the dead that they may be loosed from their sins' she offers her sacrifices and prayers for them." We are not called to simply trust that the dead are in heaven; we are called to give them our prayers so that they may arrive there quickly.

Even though this mindset does not allow us the comforting thought of believing everyone who dies is already enjoying heaven's blessings, this work of mercy can be comforting in other ways. Having the chance to pray for those who have died keeps their memory alive and assures us that we can, by our prayers, still help them. It is for this reason, that as a parish family, we pray for our faithful departed.

At this Mass, as we pray for and with one another, I invite you to bring a picture of your loved one(s) that can be placed on a table before the altar.

May the God of all hope and consolation be with you, Fr. Pete

Faithful Citizenship

November 1 (FC theme 2 -- Who is My Neighbor): "The Solemnity of All Saints displaces the ordinary Sunday celebration this year and reminds us that all of us are called to holiness by appropriating the values embedded in the Beatitudes, even as they contrasted with those of Jesus' time and culture and contrast with cultural norms today. The first reading from Revelation paints a rich portrait of the heavenly court: a countless multitude "from every nation, race, people, and tongue." As Catholics, we uphold human dignity across national, linguistic, and cultural boundaries, not out of any secular vision but instead because divine revelation demands nothing less." (United States Conference of Catholic Bishops online resources for "Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship.")

"For citizens in a representative democracy such as our own, participation in public life—including voting—is both a right and a responsibility,"

- Archbishop Coakley, president of the USCCB

Stewardship Humility

"Whoever exalts himself will be humbled; but whoever humbles himself will be exalted" (MATTHEW 23:12)

The world celebrates people in the spotlight and those who have the most of everything. We think celebrity, money and possessions are the key to happiness. Yet, our world is filled with more loneliness, anxiety, and depression than ever before. The stewardship lives of the saints show that the key to a happy life are relationships. Relationships with God and each other. Trust is the foundation of any good relationship and humility is the seed of trust.

An Excerpt from Magnifica Humanitas

"Founded on Christ and guided by the Holy Spirit, we believe God blesses every sincere effort to build a more just and compassionate world. The Church seeks to work alongside all people of goodwill, listening carefully to the hopes and struggles of our time and helping promote the dignity, unity, and flourishing of every human person.
In 1891, Pope Leo XIII published Rerum Novarum, helping begin what we now call the Church's social teaching. He insisted that the Gospel must speak not only about eternal life but also about the real struggles and hopes of people in the world. He showed us that the concrete lives of people are the business of the Church. Since then, the Church has continued to reflect on human dignity, justice, and the common good in light of Scripture and human experience. This living tradition still guides Christians in serving the world with wisdom, compassion, and hope. I now add my voice to this living conversation."

Queremos compartir con mucha alegría algunos testimonios de las personas que participaron en nuestro Retiro de Adviento del pasado fin de semana.

🙏 Gracias a todos los que hicieron posible este hermoso encuentro de fe, oración y reflexión. Cada testimonio nos recuerda cómo Dios sigue tocando corazones y fortaleciendo nuestra comunidad.

❤Los invitamos a conocer y compartir estas experiencias de fe, esperanza y encuentro con Dios.¡Que el Señor bendiga abundantemente a todos los que participaron y que este tiempo de Adviento prepare nuestros corazones para recibir a Jesús! ✨

Lo más hermoso de este retiro fue sentir la presencia de Dios en cada oración, en cada alabanza y en cada corazón que se abrió a su amor. Nos llevamos momentos inolvidables, corazones renovados y la alegría de haber vivido un verdadero encuentro con Jesús. Jesús García, ministro de música.

"El retiro fue maravilloso. A mi esposo José y a mí nos encantó. Nos sentimos renovados en nuestra fe y con el corazón lleno de Dios. Fue una experiencia muy hermosa que nos ayudó a fortalecer nuestra fe y acercarnos más al Señor.¡Gracias a todos los que hicieron posible este retiro! Que Dios los bendiga siempre." Claudia Martínez, miembro de nuestra comunidad.

Agradezco a Dios por la bendición de haber sido invitada por mi hija a vivir este hermoso retiro. Soy miembro de la comunidad de Santa Gianna y quiero felicitar a todos los que hicieron posible este encuentro.Fue un retiro maravilloso. Tuvimos una excelente predicadora, una comida deliciosa y, sobre todo, lo más importante: nos llenamos del amor de Dios y de la presencia de Cristo Vivo en nuestros corazones.Gracias por este hermoso momento de renovación espiritual, fraternidad y encuentro con Dios. Que el Señor siga bendiciendo a todos los que trabajaron con tanto amor y dedicación para hacer de este retiro una experiencia tan especial.¡Dios los bendiga siempre! Gloria A. Ozoria -invitada

Lo que más me gustó y tocó mi corazón fue comprender que Dios siempre cumple sus promesas. Cuando ponemos nuestra confianza en Él y aprendemos a esperar en su tiempo, descubrimos que nunca nos abandona ni nos defrauda.

Este retiro me recordó que, aunque a veces atravesamos momentos difíciles o no entendamos lo que está sucediendo, debemos mantener nuestra fe y confiar plenamente en Dios, porque todo aquel que confía en Él no quedará defraudado. Él siempre está obrando en nuestras vidas y cumple sus promesas en el momento perfecto. Lázaro Rosario, coordinador del círculo de oración

Lo que más me gustó y tocó mi corazón durante este retiro fue comprender algo muy importante sobre el verdadero camino hacia la santidad: no consiste solamente en orar, sino también en poner en práctica el amor de Dios a través de nuestras acciones.La verdadera santidad se manifiesta cuando somos capaces de hacer el bien, incluso cuando nos cuesta. Por ejemplo, al acercarnos a una persona enferma, a un anciano abandonado o a alguien que tiene heridas, dificultades o necesidades. En lugar de alejarnos, debemos acercarnos con amor, acompañarlos, escucharlos y brindarles nuestra ayuda, sin importar las circunstancias.Comprendí que Dios se hace presente en el rostro de nuestros hermanos, especialmente en los más necesitados. No necesitamos verlo físicamente para reconocer su presencia, porque podemos encontrarlo en cada persona a la que tratamos con amor, misericordia, respeto y humildad.No basta con decir que amamos a Dios si nuestras palabras y nuestras actitudes no reflejan ese amor. Debemos aprender a controlar nuestra lengua, evitar las críticas y tratar a los demás con paciencia, bondad y comprensión.Como lectores, ministros y servidores de nuestra Iglesia, tenemos una responsabilidad aún mayor: ser verdaderos testimonios del amor de Cristo. Debemos trabajar cada día en nuestra conversión y mantener encendida esa lámpara de la fe, para que su luz brille en nuestros rostros y en nuestras acciones, y así podamos transmitir el amor de Dios a quienes nos rodean.Una de las bendiciones más especiales que recibí durante este retiro fue la experiencia del don de lenguas, algo que llenó mi corazón de alegría, emoción y gratitud.Le doy gracias a Dios por todo lo que me permitió vivir y aprender durante este retiro. Le pido que me conceda la gracia de seguir creciendo espiritualmente, de servir con un corazón humilde y generoso, y que su luz brille siempre a través de mi vida.

Amén.
